CERTIFICATE OF RESEARCH SUPERVISOR

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

1. This Thesis is born out of my commitment to do something tangible for my fellow countrymen afflicted by disasters. Their plight has been, and continues to be, the driving force behind this research.
2. First and foremost, I prostrate myself Goddess Saraswati - the Goddess of Learning - and offer her my most sublime obeisance, gratefulness, prayers and oblations. Without her divine 'Ashirwad' this seminal work would not have been possible.

3. My most profound thanks are due to my Research Supervisor, Prof Harvir Sharma, PhD, D Litt, for guiding me along so expertly and professionally, for constantly asking me to explore new avenues and for offering innumerable suggestions to improve the quality and content of the 'drafts' that I repeatedly put up to him. His contribution in goading me on to achieve his unattainable high standards is overwhelming and I can never thank him enough for the 'Gyan' I have been so fortunate to receive from him. As his 'Shishya' it gives me great joy to touch the feet of my 'Guru'.

4. I am deeply indebted to my former boss, Lt Gen P K Singh, PVSM, AVSM (Retd) - currently Director USI - who, as the then Director General Operational Logistics at the Integrated HQ of Ministry Of Defence, (Army) allowed me to embark on this research in the first place. Thanks are also due to his successors, (Late) Lt Gen D S Grewal, AVSM and Lt Gen B S Nagal, PVSM, AVSM, SM, ADC - presently GOC-in-C Strategic Forces Command - for having reposed confidence in my abilities to do justice to such a challenging subject and for encouraging me all through the crucial early stages of preparation of the Thesis.

5. For their valuable insights, scholarly expositions and sage advice I am beholden to a multitude of 'experts' in the field of Disaster Management. Prominent amongst them are : General N C Vij, PVSM, UYSM, AVSM (Retd), Vice-Chairman, NDMA ; Lt Gen (Dr) J R Bhardwaj, PVSM, AVSM, VSM, PHS (Retd), Prof Vinod Menon and Mr K M Singh, all three are members of the NDMA ; Mr P G Dhar Chakrabarti, Executive Director, NIDM ; Dr Subbiah Arjunapermal, Asian Disaster Preparedness Centre, Bangkok ; Mr Raman Letchumanan, ASEAN Secretariat, Indonesia ; Mr Bobby Ray Gordon, Centre For Excellence In Disaster Mangement and Humanitarian Assistance, Hawaii, USA ; Mr Markus Werne, UN OCHA, Asia-Pacific Region ; Mr Arjun Katoch, UN OCHA, Geneva and Ms Ingrid Nordstrom-Ho, Chief Civil-Military Coordination Section, UN OCHA, Geneva. Thanks are also due to Senior Military Officers from more than a dozen countries who I had occasion to meet at various professional forums and who have, so graciously, shared with me their immense knowledge and experiences in this field.

6. I would also like to put on record my deep appreciation and gratitude to Lt Gen A S Lamba, AVSM, GOC-in-C Army Training Command, Lt Gen Deepak Raj, AVSM, SM, Commandant Army War College and, most notably, my present Commander, Maj Gen S K H Johnson, SM, VSM. For creating an eclectic and intellectual organizational climate, for allowing me time to work on my Thesis, for their seasoned advice and mature counsel and for their rock-solid support, I shall remain forever indebted to them.

7. For the invaluable guidance and whole-hearted assistance accorded to me in completing this seminal work I am deeply indebted to the Faculty and Staff of the Department Of Defence Studies, Ch. Charan Singh University, Meerut and all the other institutions that I have visited in the course of compiling my Thesis. Notable amongst these are the USI, IDSA, NIDM, NCDC, CLAWS, NDC, DRDO and the Army War College. Here, I would like to especially thank the Library Staff of these institutions and all those who helped me in typing, printing and putting together the entire research work. Thank you for being so cooperative and for putting up with my unreasonable demands. I am aware that I have inconvenienced you many a time, sometimes even asking you to extend your working hours for me. I am grateful for your cooperation and assistance. This Thesis owes a lot to you.

8. Finally, my special thanks to my family members : my parents Mr Lal Singh and Mrs Kamini Bhardwaj, my in-law's Lt Gen O P Kaushik, PVSM, AVSM, VSM (Retd) and Mrs Vinod Kaushik, my wife Yashika, daughter Aditi, son Adhiraj, assistants Ravinder and Amar and our pet Dalmatian – Duke. I recognize that by letting me work on my study table even when you needed me for some household work, or wanted to simply sit down and have a chat with me during my fleeting Army leaves, you have silently - but superbly - demonstrated your commitment to my work. Without your love, support, self-sacrifice and 'booster doses' of encouragement I could not have completed this research work. I hereby raise my hand in respectful salute to each one of you.
